

Diane Weinrath

Lions Gate Chorus is proud to nominate Diane for the Carole Poole Spirit of 26 award, in recognition of her outstanding dedication to our chorus. Diane's tireless efforts behind the scenes have been essential to our success, and her quiet strength inspires us all.

Diane's remarkable talent for securing much-needed grants for our chorus is a testament to her strong commitment. She has spent countless hours researching and writing grant proposals to ensure our success. Her latest grant success is a shining example of her dedication to our organization. Diane has generously given both her time and financial support to the chorus, volunteering for many events and playing a variety of important roles, including Housing Coordinator for International, Regional, and retreats, and co-Events Coordinator on the Management Team. She has also acted as peer evaluator in Lions Gate's vocal qualification program and contributed her talents to sourcing and creating beautiful decorations and successful fundraisers for our holiday concerts and parties, ensuring that every event is memorable.

Beyond her contributions to events and performances, Diane's dedication to the chorus extends to maintaining our sense of community, even during the pandemic. She invited Lions Gate friends over to record submissions for virtual chorus projects, enabling us to continue our activities and stay connected during a challenging time.

Diane has been a dedicated member of Lions Gate Chorus since 2004. She lends her beautiful tenor voice to Lions Gate Chorus' newest quartet "Four On The Floor", further demonstrating her versatility and talent. Her quartet provided free entertainment at senior homes over the holiday season and around Vancouver, showcasing Diane's commitment to community and the chorus' mission.

Diane's selfless contributions, steadfast dedication, and quiet determination make her a truly deserving nominee for the Spirit of 26 recognition.
